Approved For Release 2004/11/29 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000100290093-2

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 19 April 1962

25X1 by and John S. Warner, appeared before the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy to bring them up to date on current developments in the atomic energy field. See Momorandum for the Record. 25X1 Advised by 25X1 Committee for comments on S. 3843, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30, 600 to 5, 603. 25X1 about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable procedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had a submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do somewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized Into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew ne way of obtaining this information unless	25X1
ef the Jeint Committee on Atomic Energy to bring them up to date on current developments in the atomic energy field. See Memorandum for the Record. 25X1 Advised by that State Department has received a request from the Senate Judiciary Committee for comments on 5, 3043, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30, 000 to 5, 505. 25X1 GLC) Talked with "illiam Canon, BOB, about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report in its reply the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had automitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized Into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew ne way of obtaining this information unless	05)//	Dr. Sceville, accompanied
25X1 Advised by that State Department has received a request from the Senate Judiciary Committee for comments on 5, 3643, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30, 000 to 5, 200. 25X1 25X1 about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concurring our proposed report the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agree- ment with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew we way of obtaining this information unless	20/(1
25X1 Advised by that State Department has received a request from the Senate Judiciary Committee for comments on 5, 3643, a bill to amend the immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30, 000 to 5, 603. 25X1 CLC) Talked with "liliam Canon, BOB, about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concurring our proposed report In its reply the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be dis- criminatory and would serve as an undestrable precedent and, therefore, recommende against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agree- ment with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and saked if we had any information as to whether haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine, and a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless that State Department has received a request from the Senate Judiciary Committee for comments on $.3643, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30,000 to 5,000. 25X1 25X1 GLC) Talked with "tiliam Canon, BOB, about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report In its reply the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agree- ment with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless Committee for comments on 5, 3043, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30, 900 to 5, 900. 25X1 GLC Talked with "tiliam Canon, BOB, about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptised into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless	25X1	Advised by	25X1 and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30,000 to 5,000. 25X1 about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security whether one of the top Communists is Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless 25X1 25X1 about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report In its reply the Bureau takes the position that enactment of would be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptised into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless
25X1 about the Bureau's letter to the Agency concerning our proposed report In its reply the Bureau takes the position that enactment of		and Nationality Act. The State Department position will be concurrence provided the quota allocation is reduced from 30,000 to 5,000.
25X1 the Bureau takes the position that enactment ofwould be dis25X eximinatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security whether	25X1	The state of the s
the Bureau takes the position that enactment ofwould be discriminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore, recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether	25X1 recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwins, Senate Internal Security one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless	20/(1	l	25X1
recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do somewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless		criminatory and would serve as an undesirable precedent and, therefore,
Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do somewhat the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless		recommends against this enactment. I reminded Canon of that fact that we	F ≟T
the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in general terms the Sureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptised into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless		had submitted what amounted to a factual report last year to the Senate
general terms the Bureau's opposition to the bill. Canon was in agreement with this approach, but preferred that we not send a copy of the Bureau's letter to the Committee at this time. 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "baptised into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless		Judiciary Committee on this case and added that we would do semewhat
25X1 25X1 Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether "baptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless		the same thing in our letter to the House committee, indicating in 25X1 Jay Sourwine. Senate Internal Security 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew so way of obtaining this information unless 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to whether one of the top Communists in Cuba, had ever been "haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew so way of obtaining this information unless
"haptized into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless	25X1
"haptized in:o the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know no way of obtaining this information unless	25X1	Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had any information as to him this question and he knew no way of obtaining this information unless	25/(1	*Petpet Oth Ot the tab Californians to case increase him this question and he know no way of optaining this intermetion unions		"haptised into the Catholic Church." Sourwine said a Senator had asked him this question and he know he way at optaining this interaction which we might possibly have it. I told Sourwine we would look into this and be in touch with him.

CIA PATE IN LOSE ONLY